SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA
COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE
(Riverside)

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA,

Plaintiff,

v.

BRENT STEWART,

Defendant.

NO. RIM 1670198

MOTION TO ADMIT
VICTIM'S OUT OF COURT
STATEMENTS

ANTICIPATED EVIDENCE.

Defendant is charged in a criminal complaint with a violation of 243(e)(1)PC, 21810PC, 23152aVC, and 2 counts of 273a(b)PC. The defendant is a Riverside Police Officer.

On October 24, 2015, the defendant, Brent Stewart, and his wife, Jane Doe (per PC293), attend a party at the home of [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. The defendant and Doe arrive somewhere defendant, in his vehicle, from his home to the home of another Riverside Sergeant. They do not contact this Sergeant. The defendant gets a water, an energy drink, and is driven by Payne to the Sergeant's home, using the defendant's vehicle, while Sergeant Tipre follows them. They leave the defendant parked in front of the Sergeant's home to "sleep it off." They administer no Field Sobriety Tests, no blood or breath tests.

According to their report, after being directed to return to the station and review their
